Brief Composer Biography:

Alex Shapiro (b. New York City, 1962) composes genre-blind acoustic and electroacoustic pieces known for their lyricism and drama. Published by Activist Music LLC, her many works for diverse ensembles are heard daily in concerts and broadcasts across the U.S. and internationally, and can be found on over thirty commercially released recordings from around the world.

A familiar voice in the new music community, Ms. Shapiro advocates for fellow creators through public speaking and workshops, published articles, and a positive presence on social media. Her volunteerism has involved a wide scope of leadership, from the boards of national music organizations including the American Music Center, New Music USA, the American Composers Forum of Los Angeles, The MacDowell Colony, and The Society of Composers & Lyricists, to the American Civil Liberties Union of Southern California and University of Washington's Friday Harbor Laboratories marine research center. In 2014 Shapiro was elected to the sole Symphonic & Concert writer seat of the Board of Directors of ASCAP, and she is also a board member of the ASCAP Foundation and the Aaron Copland Fund for Music. In June 2022 she was elected to the Board of Directors of the Music Publishers Association of the United States, representing her publishing company Activist Music.

Born and raised in Manhattan and later a longtime resident of Malibu, California, since 2007 Alex has lived amidst nature on Washington State's remote San Juan Island. An award-winning amateur wildlife photographer, she can regularly be found communing with the sea life that surrounds her, as seen on her music- and photo-filled blog, notesfromthekelp.com, and her website, alexshapiro.org.
